

Okada Manila and Philippine Coast Guard Serve 648 Residents of Talim Island in Medical and Dental Mission

MANILA, 02 May 2024 – Okada Manila, in a significant community outreach effort, partnered with the Philippine Coast Guard Auxiliary 107th Squadron to conduct a comprehensive Medical and Dental Mission in Talim Island, Barangay Subay, Cardona Rizal on April 20, 2024. The mission successfully provided essential health services to 648 residents, addressing a critical need for medical care in this remote community.

A total of 153 volunteers from Okada Manila, the Philippine Coast Guard, the Philippine Coast Guard Auxiliary, DZRH Operation Tulong & Harley Davidson Group, and from Barangay Subay participated in the medical and dental mission.

The day-long event offered a range of services including medical consultations, surgical operations such as circumcision, dental extractions and treatments, optical check-ups with the distribution of free reading glasses, and a supply of medicines. These services were made accessible to the island's residents, who face challenges in reaching traditional medical facilities due to their geographical isolation.

Medical consultations, surgical operations such as circumcision, dental extractions and treatments, optical check-ups with the distribution of free reading glasses, and a supply of medicines were among the services offered.

A total of 153 volunteers participated in the mission, including members from Okada Manila Security and Safety Division, the Philippine Coast Guard, Philippine Coast Guard Auxiliary, medical and dental doctors from DZRH Operation Tulong and Harley Davidson Group, and local officials from Barangay Subay. The Okada Manila Team was led by Jay Ian Capuz and Ramil Alejo, and received strong support from local leaders such as Vice Mayor Gil F. Pandac and Barangay Subay Chairman Fernando Ditalan Anore Sr. The Coast Guard Auxiliary 107th Squadron was under the capable direction of AUX Capt. Cesar Bredes, with Commodore Arnaldo Lim leading the Philippine Coast Guard efforts.

Byron Yip, President and COO of Okada Manila, emphasized the organization's dedication to its corporate social responsibility goals, stating, "Our mission goes beyond business—it is about serving our men, women, and children, especially in remote areas where basic facilities are scarce. This initiative is proof of our commitment to reaching out and making a difference in the lives of the communities we serve."

Meanwhile, Chief Security Officer Debold Sinas highlighted the involvement of team members who are also part of 107th Squadron PCGA, "Our participation is an extension of our commitment to enhancing our team's social awareness and responsibility. Engaging in such community service activities allows us to connect more deeply with the communities and provide necessary aid where it is most needed."

This mission is part of Okada Manila's ongoing efforts to bring healthcare services closer to those in remote locations and to improve the overall health and wellbeing of its constituents. The success of this event underscores the powerful impact of collaborative efforts between corporate entities and government agencies in addressing community health needs.
